Dear Sirs:

I have a file of "Numismatic Journals," volumes 1 to 36 inclusive, bound in half leather, also 3 or 4 volumes unbound, which I wish to dispose of and am writing to ask if you would advise my advertising them in your magazine or if you could suggest any other way in which I could dispose of them.

I shall be very glad if you will let me hear from you in regard to this matter at your earliest convenience.

Yours respectfully,

Dear Madam:-

I have your letter of October 13th but I am somewhat at a loss how to advise you. I take it that the set you describe is the American Journal of Numismatics and that the volumes 1 to 36 run from 1866 to 1902 inclusive. The sets of our Journal which have been offered at auction in the past few years have brought ridiculously low prices. I purchased one set partially bound in three-quarters morocco for about twenty-five dollars. I note you state your set is bound in half leather. Can you be more specific in this regard giving the color and state whether the binding is sheep, calf or morocco, and whether each year is bound separately or whether two years are sometimes bound in one volume. It is possible we might purchase them but our finances are pretty low at this season of the year. Would you care to place a price on the set?

I question that advertising would bring you any results. Our Journal is published annually, and there is no space for advertisements. Most people who might be interested in such a set know that it could be purchased at our Society at any time, and are not willing to acquire a bound set which will not match portions they may have already bound in a different form.

Have you any other numismatic books? On receipt of your reply I will at once write you.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of October 15th was received and in reply I will say that all the "Numismatic Journals" are packed away and as yet we have not had an opportunity to get them out but will do so as soon as possible and will send you full particulars as you request.

Yours respectfully,
